JB And	Benge, Janet & Geoff	Brother Andrew: God's secret agent	When he became God's smuggler, Brother Andrew was already familiar with risk. As a boy, the intrepid Andre w van der Bijl joined the Dutch Resistance against the Nazi occupation. As a young man, he fought eagerly in the Dutch East Indies -- until the horror of war turned the adventure seeker to a life of alcohol and desperation. Redeemed by God, the Dutchman became a daring messenger of hope, smuggling Scripture through closed borders and equipping persecuted Christians behind the Iron Curtain. Today Brother Andrew and the ministry of Open Doors continues to shine the light of Christ in the world's darkest places.
JB And	Millwright, Alan	Brother Andrew: God's Undercover Agent	Equipped with a fearlessness honed in the Dutch Underground and the postwar jungles of the Dutch East Indies, and a trust in God that nothing is impossible, Brother Andrew became one of the first westerners to evangelize behind the Iron Curtain. And as more doors to Eastern Europe began to open, Brother Andrew knew God's purpose for his life: to deliver Bibles to people everywhere in the world who are starved for His Word! Today, millions of Bibles later, Open Doors International, Brother Andrew's organization, is still striving to fulfill God's purpose.

JB Car	Benge, Janet, 1958-	William Carey : Obligated to Go
JB Car	Wellman, Sam	Amy Carmichael: A Life Abandoned to God	For Amy Carmichael, the road to Dohnavur, India, was paved with many memories. Surely if Jesus could give everything He had, she could do no less. And so in 1895, Amy Carmichael embraced an unusual mission, one that would last for the remaining 56 years of her life. The Dohnavur Fellowship would become a place of sanctuary for more than one thousand children who would otherwise have faced a bleak future.
JB Car	Wellman, Sam	William Carey: Father of Modern Missions	Born in England in 1761, Carey sailed for India shortly after his ordination as a Baptist minister. Carey's harvest would be great, indeed almost unthinkable by today's standards. For not only was William Carey winning souls for Jesus, he was keenly involved in improving the quality of life for millions, "teaching them to observe all things..."
JB Carey	Clinton, Iris	Young Man in a Hurry, Story of William Carey
JB Carmichael	Robbins, Nancy E.	God's Madcap, Story of Amy Carmichael
JB Cau	Branyon, Beth	Miss Eloise First Lady of Foreign Missions	Mission work of Eloise Glass Cauthen.
JB Cro	Ruffin, Bernard, 1947-	Fanny Crosby: The Great Hymn Writer	The eyes of Fanny Crosby displayed the scars of an incompetent medical treatment, one that would render her sightless for life. Yet the light that illuminated this brave girl's soul was destined to electrify generations to come. Fanny Crosby, the author of over 2,000 beloved hymns, would be eulogized in her own words-by "Blessed Assurance," "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross," "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me," "Sweet Hour of Prayer," and "To God Be the Glory."
JB Cun	Benge, Janet & Geoff	Loren Cunningham: Into all the world	Ever since he was a young boy dreaming of writing "God Is Love" on the moon so that all the world's people could see it, Loren Cunningham has committed his life to reaching the whole world with the Good News of Jesus Christ, ministering in every nation on earth. Through his unswerving belief that nothing is impossible for God, Loren's vision of waves of young people became the reality of Youth with a Mission, unleashing young Christians in missionary service when that was unheard of. Today, through the mission he began, multiplied thousands of believers -- young and old-- are working together to bring the gospel to the whole earth.

JB Edw	Hosier, Helen K.	Jonathan Edwards: The Great Awakener	Jonathan Edwards is best remembered for one powerful sermon that he preached: "Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God." But to stop there is to overlook his many other accomplishments, not only in the ministry but in philosophy, science, and education. Many believe Jonathan Edwards was the greatest thinker in American history.
JB Ell	Benge, Janet & Geoff	Jim Elliot: One Great Purpose	Jim Elliot and his coworkers surrendered their lives in Ecuador's jungle, trusting that their sacrifice would not be in vain. Decades later, this dramatic event has challenged countless Christians to live with one great purpose: to bring the gospel to those who have never heard.
JB Gra	Wellman, Sam	Billy Graham: The Great Evangelist	Since his first outdoor meeting in 1949 the focus of this extraordinary North Carolina-born evangelist has remained the same: to proclaim the Christian faith to nonbelievers. This simple desire has led Graham's ministry into uncharted territory as he crossed racial and political barriers without fear of criticism.
JB Gre	Benge, Janet & Geoff	Betty Greene: Wings to serve	As a young girl growing up on the shores of Lake Washington, Betty Greene had two passions: a love for Christ and a love of flying. As a young World War II WASP pilot, Betty dreamed of combining her two passions by using wings to serve God. Betty's dream became reality when she helped found the Mission Aviation Fellowship. Her faith-filled adventures and faithful service helped create what is today a global ministry that operates more than eighty aircraft in nineteen countries.
JB JON	Ropes, Mary	Mary Jones & Her Bible	This is the true story of a little Welsh girl named Mary Jones. After 6 years of saving money, Mary embarks on a long journey over the Welsh mountains to the town of Bala in search of a Bible, but does not find any for sale. As Mary's adventure unfolds, you will see how a girl, a preacher, a schoolmaster and other people are drawn together to start something that can't be stopped.
JB Jud	Benge, Janet & Geoff	Adoniram Judson: Bound for Burma	As America's first foreign missionary, Adoniram Judson thirsted to see the Good News brought to the shrouded land of Burma. His thirst would be quenched, but at an unimaginable price. Adoniram survived starvation, imprisonment, and torture both on land and at sea only to watch his family, coworkers, and friends succumb to death.

JB Liv	Benge, Janet and Geoff	David Livingstone: Africa's trailblazer	With the heart of an explorer and the passion of an evangelist, David Livingstone mapped vast, unexplored areas of Africa, sharing the gospel with whomever he encountered. His stamina, perseverance, and dogged determination created the legacy of a trailblazing explorer with an undying hunger to make Christ known wherever his steps led him.
JB Liv	Wellman, Sam	David Livingstone: Missionary and Explorer	To go where no missionary had ever been, to smell the smoke of unknown villages, to witness to people beyond the vast Kalahari, such were the dreams of David Livingstone. Exhaustion, serious illness, and wild animals, not to mention the murderous activities of slave traders, became commonplace as Dr. Livingstone journeyed south to Angola, then to Mazambique, and later, Victoria Falls. Driven by his faith, and his sense of outrage, Livingstone's life and writings would ignite the Dark Continent as never before.
JB Moo	Benge, Janet	Lottie Moon: Giving Her All for China
JB Moo	Harvey, Bonnie C.	D. L. Moody: The American Evangelist
JB Moo	Hughes, Ann Kilner	Lady of Courage
JB Mor	Balding, Lindley	Samuel Morris	While most missionary biographies detail the lives of Western missionaries, this is the story of the African missionary God called to the United States when slavery and segregation were an accepted fact of life. This book details the moving life story of Samuel Morris.
JB Mor	Whalin, W. Terry	Samuel Morris: The Apostle of Simple Faith	Samuel Morris began life as Kaboo, the eldest son of a tribal chieftain. He was a prince, but very soon he became accustomed to being a pawn, his life held in torturous limbo until his father could repay his debts. The hand of God intervened. From Kaboo's miraculous escape, to his baptism by missionaries, to his remarkable voyage to America where he would preach against segregation and slavery.
JB Mot	Wellman, Sam	Mother Teresa: Missionary of Charity	As a young girl, Mother Teresa felt called to serve as a nun in India. But in 1946, as a woman living and teaching in Calcutta, she felt another call, "a call within a call," to live among and offer free services to Calcutta's most desperate poor. Mother Teresa's call to the downtrodden would soon transcend Asia, and her diminutive figure would soon become synonymous worldwide with compassion. Mother Teresa sought out those less fortunate than they, above all, might be empowered...empowered by Jesus' love.

JB Mul	Benge, Janet & Geoff	George Muller: The Guardian of Bristol's Orphans	With scarcely enough food or money for his own family, George Muller opened his heart and home. Sustained by God's provision, the Muller hosue "Breakfast Club" of thirty orphans grew to five large houses that ultimately over ten thousand children would call home.
JB Mul	Harvey, Bonnie	George Muller: Man of Faith	Psalm 68:5 spoke to George Muller's heart in a unique way. Believing that his material needs would be supplied through faith and prayer alone, Muller began a ministry in 1835 for orphaned children based entirely upon God for support.
JB Nee	Laurent, Bob	Watchman Nee: Man of Suffering	Opposed by traditional denominations for his work in creating indigenou churches in China, Nee also encountered false accusations from the Chinese government, extreme poverty, and the ravages of disease. Yet from the seeds he planted grew larger churches that continued to thrive despite Communist persecution.
JB New	Sandbery, Anne	John Newton
JB NIG	Binder, Amy, Freeberg, Salerno, Vawter	Florence Nightingale
JB Nig	Wellman, Sam	Florence Nightingale: Lady with the Lamp	Florence Nightingale never questioned the day God called her into His service. "Decent" young women of the nineteenth century weren't expected to work--especially not in the foiful, disease-ridden medical camps of the British military. But that's where she found her calling: comforting sick, wounded, and dying soldiers, and fighting for their rights within an apathetic establishment. From Scutari Hospital in the Crimean War, she turned the medical world upside down.
JB Pau	Larsen, Dan	Paul / Chronicles of Faith	Action, excitement, and adventure await you in one of the most incredible true life stories of all time. Paul the apostle turned the world upside down with his call to radical obedience, faith, and commitment to Jesus Christ. Journey with Paul through Jerusalem, Damascus, Philippi, and the great city of Rome, and discover for yourself the truth that changes hate into love, fear into hope, and death into life!
JB Sai	Benge, Janet & Geoff	Nate Saint, On a Wing and a Prayer
JB Sai	Benge, Janet, 1958-	Rachel Saint : a star in the jungle	When young Rachel Saint surrendered her life to God, she began an unimagivable journey that would span decades and radically transform a dying culture steeped in revenge. Against all odds, God would lead her to Ecuador's Waorani Indians -- known as Aucas, or savages, and infamous for murder.

JB Wes	Dengler, Sandy	Susanna Wesley: Servant of God	Susanna Annesley, born in seventeenth-century England, was the last of twenty-five children. She was exceptionally bright and beautiful. She eventually married Samuel Wesley, loving strong-willed rector in the Church of England. But her life with Sam was turbulent and she knew what it was to suffer trials. Her husband nurtured his dreams more than his family. This was not enough to squelch Susanna's spirit. She continued to teach her children to honor God and obey His Word. Nearing the end of her earthly life, she made a wonderful, awesome discovery.
JB Wes	Wellman, Sam	John Wesley: The Great Methodist	England of the early eighteenth century was a bleak place to be, a country riddled with crime and hopelessness, an isle ripe for spiritual revival. Enter John Wesley, the son of an Anglican clergyman, a man whose own spiritual doubts had recently been vanquished by a startling revelation. The founder of what would become the Methodist Church would become a light in the darkness, a spark that would kindle a fire in the hearts of millions for generations to come.
JBiog Carmichael	Meloche, Renee Taft	Amy Carmichael: Rescuing the Children	Amy Carmichael was still a child when an encounter with a poor girl her age changed the course of her life and in turn the lives of countless others. As she grew up, Amy kept her promise to help others, ultimately rescuing hundreds of women and children from the hopelessness of poverty, oppression, and life without Christ. First in the slums of Northern Ireland and later in far-away India, Amy reached out to others in love, faith, and compassion. Now Heroes for Young Readers makes Amy Carmichael's remarkable story available in this picture book all ages will treasure.
