

1 RICK & ELISABETH ARNOLD Pioneers, Inc., West Africa

Continue praying for Rick's recovery as he had a horrific fall from the roof of their home on November 17. God's hand and guidance has been prevalent every step of the way. Elisabeth has testified and witnessed miracle after miracle; from the dusty ground to a small bush clinic, to ambulance air service to Paris on November 23, to days and nights in ICU, to the miracle of Rick walking two flights of stairs on November 30. They are now in Jacksonville, FL and will have numerous medical appointments, including the Mayo Orthopedic Department regarding his fractured clavicle.

10 GREG & JEAN HINES Frontline Missions, Honduras

Two hurricanes came through in a matter of days, but the devastation left behind will take days, months and even years to clean up and rebuild. People have lost homes; the power, internet and cell service across the country remains unstable, meaning almost daily interruptions of service for all. It is still raining (not hurricane force rain but normal seasonal rain), which is making access very difficult and nearly impossible to reach some of the communities that need help. Pray for the rains to cease.

In this current season of uncertainty, E & G are thankful they can remain confident that God's faithfulness doesn't change with the changing of time, even though they are out of their ministry country due to the coronavirus. The pair have fellowship in their home every fourth Sunday and each week G has been spending time with a group of teens that meet with her regularly – the enthusiastic response has been amazing. G is also spending time discipling a friend who accepted Christ and got baptized last week. Pray that out of all these people, spiritual leaders would emerge.
