

The Flood

Genesis 6:5-12 NKJV

In ancient times, God sent a flood that covered the entire earth with water. The human race was saved from extinction by a man named Noah. In this session, we look at Noah's obedience to build the ark and how God in His mercy gave humanity a second chance.

Main Point #1

God's patience has a limit.

- Hebrews 10:31 NASB
- Genesis 6:13 NKJV
- nephilim

Main Point #2

Salvation from judgment is a gift of God's grace.

- Genesis 6:8-9 NKJV
- Genesis 6:22 NKJV

Main Point #3

Noah's assignment required faith.

- Genesis 6:16a NKJV
- John 10:9 NKJV
- Hebrews 11:7 NKJV

Main Point #4

God did what only God could do.

- | | |
|---|------------------------|
| • Genesis 6:19-20 NKJV | • Genesis 7:17-18 NKJV |
| • Genesis 7:1 NKJV | • Genesis 7:23-24 NKJV |
| • Genesis 7:7-9 NKJV | • Genesis 8:1 NKJV |
| • Noah was responsible for building the Ark not filling it. | • Genesis 8:20 NKJV |
| • Genesis 7:16 NKJV | • Genesis 9:6 NKJV |
| | • Genesis 9:7 |

Main Point #5

God established a covenant of mercy.

- Genesis 9:11-13 NKJV